DETAILED ACTION

1. A third-party submission has been filed under 37 CFR 1.99 on 3/28/05 in the published application.

To ensure that a third-party submission does not amount to a protest or pre-grant opposition, 37 CFR 1.99 does not permit the third party to have the right to insist that the examiner consider any of the patents or publications submitted. Furthermore, if the submission or part of the submission is not in compliance with 37 CFR 1.99, that noncompliant submission or part thereof will not be entered in the application file. Therefore, unless the examiner clearly cites a patent or publication on form PTO-892, Notice of References Cited and such reference is used in a rejection or its relevance is actually discussed during prosecution, consideration by the examiner of any patent or publication submitted in a third-party submission cannot be presumed.

If the applicant wants to ensure that the information in a third-party submission is considered by the examiner, the applicant should submit the information in an IDS in compliance with 37 CFR 1.97 and 37 CFR 1.98. An individual who has a duty to disclose under 37 CFR 1.56 should also submit any material information contained in a third-party submission to the Office in an IDS in compliance with 37 CFR 1.97 and 37 CFR 1.98 to ensure such material information is properly disclosed to the examiner.

2. Claim 9 is withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected Species, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on 9/19/05 and telephone interview on 11/17/05.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

Art Unit: 3752

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

4. Claim 16 recites the limitation "the another surface" in lines 1 and 2. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

6. Claims 2, 12, 23, 27, and 30 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Hashish et al.

Hashish discloses a vented abrasive water-jet nozzle comprising a body 28, an abrasive mixing cavity 42, a water-jet forming orifice 20, and an airflow restriction orifice 57 defining a water-jet pathway 55/56/57 and coupling the orifice and the mixing cavity, an air-vent inlet port 52, an air-vent pathway 50 coupled between the air-inlet port 52 and the water-jet pathway 55/56/57, the air-vent pathway allowing passage of sufficient air between the air-vent inlet port and the water-jet pathway to inhibit upstream migration of abrasive particles from the mixing cavity (see column 5, lines 10+).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

7. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

Art Unit: 3752

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

8. Claims 1, 3-8, 10, 11, 13-15, 17-22, 24-26, 28, and 29 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Hashish.

Hashish discloses a vented abrasive water-jet nozzle comprising a body 28, an abrasive mixing cavity 42, a water-jet forming orifice 20, and an airflow restriction orifice 57 defining a water-jet pathway 55/56/57 and coupling the orifice and the mixing cavity, an air-vent inlet port 52, an air-vent pathway 50 coupled between the air-inlet port 52 and the water-jet pathway 55/56/57, the airflow restriction orifice 57 having a first minimum cross-section area and the air-vent pathway 50 having a second minimum cross-section area. Hashish does not disclose the second cross-section area being at least twice the first cross-section area, or the inside orifice of the water jet forming orifice approximately between 0.010 and 0.020 inch, or the inside orifice of the bore approximately between 0.015 and 0.040 inch. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to configure the device of Hashish with the second cross-section area being at least twice the first cross-section area, or the approximate claimed dimensions for the bore and the orifice, since it has been held that where the general conditions of a claim are disclosed in the prior art, discovering the optimum or workable ranges involves only routine skill in the art. In re Aller, 105 USPQ 233.

Conclusion

9. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The following patents are cited to show the art with respect to a vented abrasive water-jet nozzle: Kobayashi, Yie, and Pao et al.
